

Poulton Photographic Society ~ 2017/18 Syllabus ~ Presentations

Date	Presenter	Title	Details
07/09/17	Roger Goodwill	Review of the Year	Roger will present his annual review of our exhibition images
14/09/17	Gary Waidson, DPAGB, HND	The Waylandscape	An Evening showing British Landscapes photographed by Gary Waidson (aka. Wayland). Please visit www.waylandscape.co.uk to see Gary's work
21/09/17	Andrew Johnson	Astrophotography with a Digital Camera	This talk will cover the use of DSLRs and other digital cameras for photographing the night sky. It will cover some of the techniques that may be used for taking and processing images of the Sun, Moon, stars and other astronomical objects from using either a simple set-up with a tripod and a cable release, through to the use of advanced telescopes to achieve great images
12/10/17	Steve Cushing, EFIAP, BPE2*	Using Lightroom	Steve will talk us through the use of Adobe's Lightroom software showing how to use the tools and the software to best advantage. This will be done by demonstration and provide an opportunity to ask Steve your Lightroom questions www.stevecushing.co.uk/
02/11/17	Margaret Salisbury, FRPS, MFIAP, FIPF, APAGB, FSITTP, FSINWP, AWPf	The Lucky Dragon	Margaret will present a selection of monochrome and colour print images which will feature a mixture of Pictorial, Documentary, Travel, Creative, Nature and Photojournalism, together with the stories that go with them, to make this a memorable evening
30/11/17	Boyd Harris	People and Mountains of the Himalayan Kingdom of Bhutan	Bhutan is a remote country to the east of Nepal. The sacred mountain Chomolhari which is 7,326m high (24,035 ft), was first climbed in 1937 by Freddy Spencer Chapman (1901-1971) and Sherpa Pasang Dawa Lama. This presentation covers their ascent and Boyd's further exploration into the North West area of the Bhutanese Himalayas and its remote villages www.boydharris.co.uk
07/12/17	Adrian Almond	Lake District Landscape Photography	Adrian's talk will show us how he creates his excellent Lake District landscape images. It will cover techniques and the equipment and accessories he uses. He will suggest where and when to go, explaining when the best time of the day/month would be to create stunning images www.adrianalmondphotography.com
18/01/18	Alf Myers	Street Photography	Alf is a passionate street photographer. He will present a selection of his images and talk us through the techniques involved in capturing them www.alfagraphy.zenfolio.com

Poulton Photographic Society ~ 2017/18 Syllabus ~ Presentations

Date	Presenter	Title	Details
25/01/18	Justin Garner	The Long Road South	The Long Road South is about Justin's journey though South America where he travelled south though Peru and Chile. The images in the talk will cover nature, landscapes and travel photography www.jags-photography.co.uk
01/03/18	Bob Dennis, APAGB, CPAGB, AFIAP, BPE4*	The Bebington Salon 2018	Bob Dennis will guide us through a selection of the best images from the renowned 2018 'Bebington Salon of Photography' competition
15/03/18	David Nightingale	Title - TBC	David is an excellent local photographer who runs www.chromasia.com . He will present a selection of his contemporary images and explain the techniques behind producing them. Expect some eye catching images!
22/03/18	Trevor Davenport, ARPS, DPAGB, BPE4*	Nature, Far & Near	Trevor's nature talk is in two halves. In the first half he will show us images he has taken at the Yellowstone National Park in the USA. In the second half Trevor will cover images he has taken on the Sefton Coast near where he lives. A talented nature & wildlife photographer, Trevor won the 'Insects' section of the 'Great British Wildlife Photography Challenge 2016' run by the Daily Mail newspaper
26/04/18	Ian Stewart, ARPS, DPAGB	My Eye in the Sky	A lecture on Drone photography which will feature both a practical and a Powerpoint presentation together with an AV show. It will cover how to use drones correctly to take your photography to new heights www.iwsphotography.co.uk
07/06/18	Dave McCulloch	Image from our Trip Days	Dave will present a selection of the images taken by Poulton Photographic Society members during the various PPS outings that have taken place during the year