

INFORMATION

Poulton-Le-Fylde Photographic Society was founded in 1966 by a group of enthusiastic photographers following a Photographic Competition which took place as part of the Poulton-Le-Fylde Annual Festival celebrations.

The Society still has a significant involvement in the Annual Festival, holding its Annual Exhibition during Festival Week in June and organising a Photographic Competition for local residents.

The Society is affiliated to the Photographic Alliance of Great Britain (PAGB) through membership of the Lancashire and Cheshire Photographic Union (L & C.P.U). The Society is also member of the Joint Fylde Photographic Societies (JFPS).

The Society currently meets each Thursday Evening from September to June at the Methodist Church Upper Hall, Queensway in Poulton-Le-Fylde. The meetings start at 7:30pm and conclude about 10:00pm

The meetings cover a wide range of photographic subjects in the form of lectures, demonstrations, competitions, viewing of folios and practical sessions.

All with any interest in Photography either viewing or taking photographs are most welcome.
